Monroe Chamber of Commerce Opens Search for New President

Monroe- The Monroe Chamber of Commerce has announced a nationwide search for its next president/CEO. The Chamber will be accepting resumes from qualified applicants through March 10th and anticipates announcing the new CEO by mid-April. The incoming president & CEO will replace current Chamber leader Sue Nicholson, who led the organization starting in 2005. Nicholson will remain on staff through May 31 to assist with the transition.

“The Chamber Executive Committee organized a diverse group of individuals to serve on the Selection Committee,” said John Landry, Chamber Board of Directors Chairman. “We are pleased that Sue will remain on staff while we conduct our search for a new leader who will help us continue to develop new initiatives and partnerships with business leaders and community organizations.”

The Chamber works to promote and strengthen the community by building prosperity through a healthy economy and a strong business sector. This is an outstanding opportunity for a chamber of commerce, economic development or private-sector executive to lead and expand an organization committed to the success of the Ouachita Parish region. The Chamber President and CEO is the key representative and advocate for business owners and employers in the parish.

The Monroe Chamber enjoys strong member relations and an excellent reputation with key organizations in the area, region and state, along with strong fiscal results. The President & CEO will inherit a dedicated Chamber staff and a committed Board of Directors. The President provides strategic direction, vision, and management for the programs and personnel of the Monroe Chamber. Candidates should demonstrate expertise in strategic planning, member sales and services, program management, economic development, public policy, nonprofit governance and operations, finance and accounting, public speaking, and fundraising.
