

Gerontology

THE BEST ON THE BAYOU!

WHAT DO WE OFFER?

- Ranked Top 5 in the Nation
- The only graduate Gerontology program in LA

STUDENTS:

- All programs fully online
- Master of Arts in Gerontology (36 course hours; seven concentrations)
- Graduate Certificate in Senior Healthcare Management (15 hours)

PUBLIC:

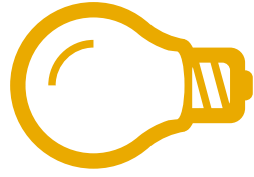

-Ongoing seminars, workshops & conferences on aging, disabilities & related topics. (Always free & open to the public.)

Contact us for details:

Gerontology Program Director:
 Dr. Anita Sharma, LCSW
 University of Louisiana Monroe
 700 University Ave.
 Monroe, LA 71209
 (318) 342-1409
 asharma@ulm.edu
 Facebook: ULM Gerontology

Find us on

A Bright Future

Gerontology is the study of the biological, psychological, cognitive and social aspects of aging. It is a multidisciplinary study of the aging process.

There is an urgent need for well-trained professionals in the field of Gerontology, and consequently the projected growth rate of jobs in Gerontology is quite high.

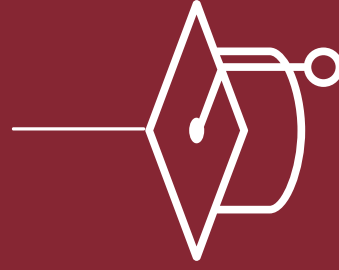

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA MONROE GERONTOLOGY

A BRIGHT FUTURE

Online Graduate & Certificate Programs
www.ulm.edu/gerontology

Master of Arts in Gerontology

- *100% online
- *May be completed in 4-6 semesters (including Summer sessions)
- *The only graduate Gerontology program in LA
- *"Unique Area of Excellence" per LA Board of Regents
- *Prep for AIT licensure & national certifications
- *Start your own business
- *Seven concentrations:
 - Long-term Care Administration
 - Program Administration
 - Health Care Management
 - Small Business Management
 - Grief Care Management
 - Mental Health
 - Aging Studies

Seminars & Continuing Education

- *Seminars
- *Workshops
- *Continuing education opportunities
- *Disability support
- *Recognition of outstanding women leaders
- *Leadership Summits
- *Networking
- *Employee training